DIRECTORS

Brent and Judy Klopfenstein

Brent and Judy, owners and directors of the Dallas Ballet Center since 1987, are committed to creating a positive learning environment while maintaining the highest technical standards of dance. Dallas Ballet Center is staffed by nurturing and caring faculty, professionals in each of their own disciplines, who encourage students to excel to their full potential. Dallas Ballet Center is the official school of the Dallas Ballet Company, founded in 1989 to provide a career pathway in the performing arts for young dancers. Each year Brent and Judy have offered students performing opportunities of the highest quality for the benefit of their dance education and stage experience, and also for their development as future patrons of the arts.
